THE LAST JUDGEMENT

Jesus said: I will come again in glory, joined by many angels; then I will take my special seat - my throne of glory. Everyone will be assembled before me and I will separate people one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. Then I will say to those on the right: "Come now, you are the blessed ones, you are going to join me in the glory of heaven forever. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you made me welcome, lacking clothes and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me." Then all the good people will ask: "Lord, when did we see you hungry and fed you, thirsty and gave you drink?" And my answer will be, "In truth I tell you, every good thing you did to one another, you did it to me."

Then he will say to those on the left, "Go away from me, you can only be punished; you chose not to be with me. For I was hungry and you gave me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not invite me in, I needed clothes and you did not clothe me, I was sick and in prison and you did not look after me."

Then they will also answer, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or needing clothes or sick or in prison, and did not help you?" My reply will be, "In truth I tell you, in so far as you neglected to do this to other people, you neglected to do it to me."
